Dear Sir I am dismayed to hear that there is a proposal to discontinue the through trains from London north of Edinburgh. As a resident of St Andrews with the commitments in the South I frequently use the Leuchars to Kings Cross Service. The train is always full- sometimes packed, and it is of course a lifeline to the Universities of Aberdeen, Dundee and St Andrews. For elderly people (of which I am one) it would make the journey South much more of an anxiety to have to change trains at Edinburgh. I do not understand the reason for this proposal and would be grateful to hear from you. yours sincerely Mrs June Baxter
