Dear Sirs,

Mainly due to a friend's awareness of the issue, I have now seen a copy of the Respondent Form and Questions with regard to some possible changes being contemplated for our railways in 2014. I do not have time or the knowledge to complete this form but I do emphatically wish to state that I am totally against any action which could end the direct rail service from the south to Dundee, Aberdeen and the north of Scotland.

My family and I have used this service from Kings Cross many times and rejoiced in the fact that we did not need to change trains in Edinburgh to reach our destination of Leuchars. It goes without saying how difficult and inconvenient the relocating of trains at Edinburgh with luggage, pushchairs, golf clubs would be for all ages and I do think that many people would be inclined to consider other forms of transport.

I am sadly conscious of the fact that many people do not know about this consultation as it has not been made sufficiently public but I can assure you that everyone whom I have notified has been very concerned about the possible loss of this much appreciated service.

Please do not do it!

Yours faithfully,

J.M.C. Cox (Mrs.)
