

Murray Kerr

I am writing to oppose the proposed closure of Duke St station.

To be without it would add time & cost to my commute, and at a time when public transport needs to be encouraged, the closing of a train station would damage this important environmental policy