Dear Sir/ Madam.

I learned with some concern that there are plans to stop the through trains from London to Leuchars, Dundee and Aberdeen at Edinburgh. This would be a tragic mistake in my opinion. Too often the North East of Scotland ( Dundee and Aberdeen) have been neglected in transport planning. ( Re. tolls on bridges!) On the occasions that my wife and I have used the through train to London from Leuchars the train has been crowded. Often too crowded! So there must be a demand for the journey. When I consider the visitors to St. Andrews, the students attending the university, the demand for oil businesses in Aberdeen and Dundee there has to be a case for preserving this connection surely.

Yours sincerely George W.C. McIntosh 9 Lawhead Rd. West, St. Andrews Fife KY16 9NE.
