Procuring rail passenger services

1. What are the merits of offering the ScotRail franchise as a dual focus franchise and what services should be covered by the economic rail element, and what by the social rail element?

Q1 comments: My primary concern is to to keep the sleeper service from London to Glasgow. I use this service regularly every 6-8 weeks as my team is split between the two cities. The route provides a cost and time efficient way of my travelling between the two cities and enables me to contribute to my Department's objectives of reducing our carbon foot print. Were the service to change to one that went only to Edinburgh, I would not be able to use it

2. What should be the length of the contract for future franchises, and what factors lead you to this view?

Q35 comments:

36. How can the provision of travel information for passengers be further improved?

Q36 comments:

Caledonian Sleeper

37. Should we continue to specify sleeper services, or should this be a purely commercial matter for a train operating company?

Q37 comments: Q1 comments: My primary concern is to keep the sleeper service from London to Glasgow. I use this service regularly every 6-8 weeks as my team is split between the two cities. The route provides a cost and time efficient way of my travelling between the two cities and enables me to contribute to my Department's objectives of reducing our carbon footprint. Were the service to change to one that went only to Edinburgh, I would not be able to use it

38. Should the Caledonian Sleeper services be contracted for separately from the main ScotRail franchise? Or should it be an option for within the main ScotRail franchise?

Q38 comments: either as long as we keep it

39. We would be interested in your views in the level and type of service that the Caledonian Sleeper Services should provide. Including:

- What is the appeal of the Caledonian Sleeper Service, and if there were more early and late trains would the appeal of the sleeper services change?
- What is the value of sleeper services to Fort William, Inverness and Aberdeen and are these the correct destinations, for example would Oban provide better connectivity?
- What facilities should the sleeper services provide and would you pay more for better facilities?

Q39 comments: The sleeper is a fantastic service. Would be good to rationalise the price of 1st class and dedicated single occupancy of 2nd class berth!

Environmental issues

40. What environmental key performance indicators should we consider for inclusion in the franchise agreement or the High Level Output Specification
