Road Safety Scotland Education Adviser

Application Form

Name

Please download and save the application form before completing. Where possible please include your name in the document title when saving and sending the form.

Please return your completed form by emailing Transport Scotland HR or by post to HR Transport Scotland, 8th Floor, Port Dundas Road, Glasgow G4 0HF by midnight Wednesday 3 February.

All electronic applications will receive confirmation.

Personal Details

Decisions regarding which candidates are selected for interview are based on the information you provide in your application form. We are unable to guess and make assumptions on the skills and experience you may have. Remember that information based on unpaid work at home or in the community can provide excellent evidence also.

Before completing your application form, please read the Further Information Document for candidates which can be found at www.transport.gov.scot/careers. Additionally, think carefully before you complete your form. Once completed please check for mistakes and revise your form before submitting it. We are looking for relevant examples of how you match the essential criteria identified for the role you are applying for. We are not interested in statements of fact e.g. "I am a strong communicator", we require an example of a time when you demonstrated strong communication skills and what that involved.

Availability for Attendance at Assessment Centre

We envisage holding a remote assessment centre between 24 February - 5 March. The assessment date will be fixed but if there is a specific date that you cannot attend within this time frame please tell us here.

We cannot promise to change your assessment date but will try to do so.

To ensure we make the appropriate reasonable adjustments for your attendance, please indicate where you claim a guaranteed interview under the "Positive about Disability" scheme? (See below for further details on the Scheme)

Transport Scotland

Transport Scotland is the national transport agency for Scotland and is accountable to Parliament and the public through Scottish Ministers, with a budget of around £2 billion per year. Transport is a vital feature of the Scottish Government's focus on increasing sustainable economic growth, and transport investments and policies have major impacts on the economy, people, and the environment.

Road Safety Scotland (RSS) sits within the Road Safety Policy and Education area of Transport Scotland's Roads Directorate. From its nominal base in Buchanan House in Glasgow, RSS is a small team comprising four members of staff, and has responsibility for Transport Scotland's road safety learning and publicity activity.

This includes the development and maintenance of learning resources for 3-18 year-olds, social marketing on a variety of campaigns, participation in events and forming partnerships with relevant organisations to further the objectives of RSS.

The Education Adviser will have responsibility for the Learning aspects of the business, working closely with the Assistant Director to ensure road safety learning resources remain relevant and current.

Main Duties

Essential Criteria

1. Strong knowledge of the Scottish Education system, especially in relation to Curriculum for Excellence.
2. The ability to communicate effectively with stakeholders and partners at senior level, and in a variety of settings, using good written and oral communications skills.
3. The ability to work on your own initiative to deliver high-quality outcomes, alongside managing your own workload and competing priorities.
4. Strong project management skills with the ability to use existing research and analyses to deliver evidence-based learning resources.

- Managing the development of, reviewing, and refreshing as appropriate, road safety learning resources, with particular emphasis on those targeting secondary pupils (Third and Fourth level and Senior Phase), and pre-driver groups.
- Liaising with Faculties of Education and other key partners in the education/learning and road safety arenas, and providing support and, where appropriate CPD, to stakeholders who use RSS resources.
- Attending conferences and events throughout the year to promote RSS resources.
- Providing a link between the RSS Learning and Publicity Advisory Groups, and the Road Safety Policy Team to identify and pursue joint working on relevant issues, particularly those relating to pre-drivers and young drivers.
- Overseeing the maintenance and updating of the RSS website, including liaising with the external digital agency appointed to undertake the work.
- Overseeing the production of the RSS Bi-annual newsletter, including liaising with the agency appointed to undertake the work.

Disability

(You need not answer these questions unless you wish to do so.)

The Scottish Government participates in the “Positive about Disabled People” scheme. Under this scheme, all candidates who consider themselves to be disabled in terms of the Equality Act 2010, and who meet the essential minimum criteria for the post, will be guaranteed an interview. Where driving is stated as a requirement for the post, we are willing to consider any proposals put forward by disabled applicants, whose disability prevents them from driving, that would allow them to do the job by another means. Please give details on a separate sheet.

To access our disability fact sheet please visit <http://www.scotland.gov.uk/About/Recruitment/DisabilityFactsheet>

Note: The Equality Act 2010 states that a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

A ‘substantial disadvantage’ is a disadvantage which is more than minor or trivial. ‘Long-term’ means that the effect of the impairment has lasted or is likely to last for at least twelve months (there are special rules covering recurring conditions). Further guidance in relation to the meaning of disability is accessible on the Equality and Human Rights Commission website <http://www.equalityhumanrights.com>

If you have a disability and are invited to sit a test or attend an interview would you like any particular arrangements made? If so please give details:

Employment History

Please give details of your current and previous employment. Start with your current or most recent employer. If you have held more than one position with the same employer, please detail each position separately. If you have not been employed then please tell us about relevant work experience and/or voluntary work.

Please list the name of your employers, with dates of employment, your job title and a brief description of duties.

Current Salary

Achievement Record

Statement in Support of Your Application - In relation to the post you are applying for please provide practical examples of how you meet the essential criteria required. You should concentrate on your role even if the task was completed as part of a team. If you have not evidenced how you meet each of the essential criteria we will be unable to invite you to assessment. You may also care to visit our website for further information on how we recruit and guidance on completing your application form.

NB: You have a maximum word count of 300 words for each essential criteria.

Data Protection

By submitting your application, if you are successful and agree to take up post, you are giving consent for the Scottish Government to carry out preemployment checks and obtain the information as outlined in the further information sheet.

I declare that the information I have given in support of my application is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true and complete. I understand that if it is subsequently discovered that any statement is false or misleading, or that I have withheld relevant information, my application may be disqualified or, if I have already been appointed, I may be dismissed. By signing this application I understand I am giving consent for the Scottish Government to obtain the information as outlined in the further information

The Scottish Government is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers, and to this end may use the information you have provided on this form for the prevention and detection of fraud. It may also share this information with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds for these purposes.

We must interpret strictly and impartially the prescribed conditions regarding age, nationality and qualifications, but it is not possible to investigate the eligibility of every candidate before interview. You should therefore satisfy yourself that you are eligible before you apply. If you are successful at interview a complete enquiry into your eligibility will be made. If you are uncertain about any aspect of your eligibility please contact us.
