What happens next?

Your feedback on the route options presented today will help shape the further development of the proposed scheme. You can give feedback in many ways including:

- filling out the Exhibition Feedback Form now by asking a member of the team
- filling out the online Exhibition Feedback Form at forms.office.com/r/6c173xdizj
- downloading a pdf version of the Exhibition Feedback Form at www.transport.gov.scot/projects/a75-springholm-and-crocketford-improvements-scheme/ and emailing or posting it to us at the following addresses.
- sending an email to A75SpringholmAndCrocketford@transport.gov.scot
- writing to us at A75 Springholm and Crocketford Improvements Team, Transport Scotland, 177 Bothwell Street, Glasgow G2 7ER

We ask that you provide your feedback by 5pm on 19 August 2026 which will enable us to consider all feedback received from these events and provide any responses that may be required.

The route options presented today will be subject to further design development and assessment. Further public and stakeholder consultation will be undertaken as we work towards completion of the assessment and identification of a preferred route option in early 2027.

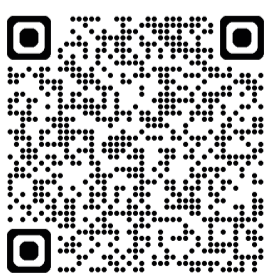

Stay Informed

Transport Scotland will keep you informed as the proposed scheme develops. If you would like us to tell you about future events and consultations, please give us your contact details using the methods above.
